Actively making a difference

Guest Speaker

Singer/Songwriter

DIANA ANAID

Singing since she could walk, writing songs at nine and picking up the guitar at fourteen, Diana used music as an outlet for her abusive childhood. After losing her mum when she was a baby and her dad to jail more than once, she had a lot to write about.

Diana settled down as a teenager in the hippie commune of Tuntable Falls near Nimbin, northern NSW, and her first CD was sponsored by a member of Greenpeace.

Don't miss the opportunity to hear Diana's inspiring story.
